▶ The Social Outcome of being banned from Facebook

I received so many phone calls, instant messages and emails asking me all the same thing: "Why did you delete me from your list?". The fact is that I never deleted them, instead, when you are banned from Facebook, you disapear from all the pictures, groups.

Now think how bad this looks when you try to add them back if they don't believe that your Facebook account got disabled. Yo think that you were angry at them and now you're trying to suck up and look sorry for your actions by asking another friend rec

Another great disadvantage is that if you are coupled with a girlfriend/boyfriend on the site, they go into IN COUPLE relationsh without anyone as a contact. Her/his friends will go asking "What's wrong?, did you guys break up, etc...".
